NAIDOC

COMMITTEE

PURPOSE

The purpose of the BNTAC NAIDOC Committee is to lead and coordinate plans and arrangements for NAIDOC celebrations each year in Goondiwindi and surrounding areas. Key functions will include (but not be limited to):

- Planning and delivery of NAIDOC community events, including in conjunction with schools / educational institutions, across Goondiwindi and surrounding areas
- Planning and coordination of the NAIDOC Welcome to Country and NAIDOC March in Goondiwindi
- Coordinate and liaise with local community groups and organisations for joint planning approaches and optimum use of local resources
- Development and dissemination of local promotions and media

SCOPE

The Committee meetings will be convened in Goondiwindi, with a phone-in option available for those residing outside of the area. Committee membership will require some commitment, with expected monthly meeting attendance and participation, and some out-of-session time requirements.

ELIGIBILITY

Nominees must be 18 years and over and Bigambul Traditional Owners / Elders. Member terms are two-years with possibility for extension.

RESPONSIBILITIES

Each participating Elder will be required to:

- Comply with this Terms of Reference
- Participate in meetings of the committee
- Undertake tasks out of session as required to progress the agenda of the committee
- Comply with the code of conduct adopted by the committee
- Declare any conflict(s) of interest
